NETWORK NEWS

The next quarterly Network Meeting

Wednesday 24th July

at The Centre @ St Peters, Ravenshead at 10 am.

After our business meeting we plan to discuss "Is our U3A full? Ways of keeping our U3A and Interest Groups open to new members."

This fits well with our consideration of the Third Age Trust document U3A Health Check: 10 key questions and an opportunity for committees to consider key issues concerning the way their U3A functions.

2020 Thoresby Hall Holidays

Mansfield and District U3A have been organising holidays at Thoresby Hall (a Warner Leisure Hotel) for 15 years now.

2 holidays have been arranged for early in 2020.

Members from various U3As in North Nottinghamshire have been attending for years but this year the invitation has been extended across the county.

For details please look at the Mansfield and District U3A website and follow the links the Thoresby Holiday Group on the Groups page.

NEWS FROM OUR REGIONAL TRUSTEE JEAN HOGG

- Booking is now open on the National website for the 2019 Conference - I do encourage you to send at least one person from your U3A
- If you look on the East Midlands U3A website you will and follow the Recent News Link you will see information on two Shared Learning Projects that have taken place in our Region this year. Please let me know if you are involved in any other SLPs
- Date for your Diary—Tuesday 21st April 2020— East Midlands Conference entitled "Making a Difference" to be held at Eastwood Hall Conference Centre. There will be workshops, a presentation by the CEO of the Third Age Trust, Sam Mauger, and a guest speaker.

Ageing Well Conference

19th October 2019

The event posters have now been sent out to all Notts Network U3As. Please follow the booking information on the poster in order to ensure that your booking details and payment are all received and that your workshop preferences are correctly recorded.

Many thanks to all those that volunteered - we now have enough volunteers for the event.

The organising team are looking forward to seeing you at the event. Paul Fileman
